

Annual General Membership Meeting Notice

Tuesday, January 9th, 2007 @ 6:30 pm

Johnny Jam's Bayou Bistreaux

(Formerly Bayou Country Club)

Your new Country Club Civic Organization website is being built.
Visit www.bccco.org for a preview. We want to know what you want to know.

What is your CCCO all about?

- Identifying important issues to Country Club residents
- Alerting and informing residents to these issues
- Taking action to correct issues, when possible
- Fostering pride in our Country Club community
- Working to keep our property values high

Issues to be discussed at meeting:

- ✓ Sewer plant update
- ✓ New CCCO Website
- ✓ Drainage update
- ✓ Safety Issues: Fire hydrants, Golf carts
- ✓ Thanks to all who help with the sign
- ✓ Update on Acadia Plantation
- ✓ Board appointments

Johnny Jam's
Bayou
Bistreaux
OPEN FOR LUNCH &
DINNER
Stop by and visit
Johnny Jam &
His Great Crew

Important Note to All Homeowners

Fire Hydrants are not pretty, BUT

Please keep the area around

ALL Fire hydrants clear.

Cut shrubs and plants so hydrants are visible.

If your home were on fire, which hydrant would you want closest to you?

This edition of the Country Club Civic Association newsletter is brought to you through the combined efforts of your board, the Bayou Country Club and Johnny Jam's Bayou Bistreaux.

See the back of this newsletter for important information and minutes to the last Board meeting.

Please attend the meeting on January 9th and join CCCO. Dues are only $10 per year. This is your organization.

The board takes direction from you, the homeowners, on important issues.

Space is provided on the back for your ideas and to get involved.

All residents, member or not, please send updated name, mailing address, and email address to rjcheramie@bellsouth.net or 447-1441

Forms may be mailed in, given to any board member, or brought to the meeting

Country Club Civic Organization Membership Application
